The Wild Guys by Andrew Wreggitt & Rebecca Shaw

Four guys, with nothing in common except their gender, start off into the woods for a weekend "encounter session". We soon find out they all seem to have a different idea of what this involves. When their 'guide' finally admits they are lost, they're all at a loss for a solution to their situation. As they wander through the wilderness, they confront their primal fears and try to figure out what it means to "be a man". The Wild Guys is a funny, wry look at men and how they see each other and themselves.

The ticket price includes a fabulous buffet meal, coffee, tea, soft drinks and, of course, a great comedy. The only thing not included is anything ordered from the bar. Tabs are paid at the end of the evening. The theatre does offer a Games Room which is available for the evening and guests are welcome to use it after the show at no extra charge. Once the liquor tabs from Dinner Theatre are paid, guests are welcome to attend the Games Room with access to the cash bar in our Green Room lounge.

CIM still has a number of sponsor opportunities available. Please contact Sonny Wilson @ 306.933.2211 ext 213 if your company would like to sponsor the Spring Social Night.

You can purchase your tickets one of two ways:

- 1) At the CIM Student Paper Night on Thursday March 19th
- 2) Contact Stephanie Oleniuk by phone or email with your RSVP and drop-off or mail a cheque (payable to CIM Saskatoon Branch) to Wardrop Engineering Inc., 1400-410 22nd Street East, S7K 5T6

Note: If you state a preference for Wed or Thurs night and that particular night sells out – you will not be moved to the other night so please be specific in your RSVPs. If you don't state a preference, your seats will be with the night that has availability.

Tickets are not available at the door. Seats will only be sold until Friday March 27th or once seating capacity is reached; whichever is first.

Seats are first come, first serve and typically go fast. We sold out last year before the RSVP deadline. There is a maximum capacity for the show so please RSVP ASAP.

Sincerely,
Stephanie Oleniuk
